Industry Intel:

Best Practice Birmingham

This month's Best Practice Show in Birmingham brought together thousands of people working hard to keep general practice running and it was genuinely inspiring to hear from so many of you.

Across conversations on the stand and during Daniel's speaker sessions, one theme stood out: practices are doing more with less, juggling financial pressures, workforce gaps, and constant change, and doing an incredible job too. Determination to keep improving never fades. From managers looking for better claiming processes to GPs exploring new income streams, the ideas and collaboration we saw were exactly what primary care is all about.

Events like this remind us how important it is to listen, to understand what's happening on the ground and where support is really needed. If you came by for a chat, thank you for sharing your experiences so openly. Or if you would like to continue the conversation why not head over to Daniel Vincent's Facebook page. Your insights shape the work we do every day.

Behind the Scenes: Meet the Team

Hi, I'm Becky. I wear a few different hats in my role - I manage data imports, set up practices, and build databases, while also helping to automate surgery workflows to make everyday tasks simpler and more efficient. Alongside that, I work on the PPA reconciliations, ensuring practices recover every penny they're entitled to.

Outside of work, I enjoy reading a good book, walking my puppy Pippa, and spending time with my three sons.

“ Client Testimonial

How did you feel when we told you how much hidden money we had found? I was shocked to hear how much was found. Such a huge amount of money.

What made you happiest about working with our company? I didn't have to do anything really.

What has exceeded your expectations since working with us? How the work silently went on in the background, and then to see how much was found.

What would you tell someone who's considering our business? It was an easy process with little input from me. Very worthwhile.
